"Come back to see me . . ."

These familiar words are heard by all N.C. Seniors as they turn in those caps and gowns after graduation—words spoken in all sincerity by our 1965 Rebel dedicatee, MRS. AUD-REY JONES. And they do! Each

REY JONES. And they do! Each fall, Room A105 echoes with remembrances of past years as North Caddo graduates return to renew their acquaintance with "a favorite."

Going to movies, wearing orange, green, brown, or yellow, faithfully attending worship services at her church, expounding American History six periods a day, asking questions about "her ex-students", and teaching their children, as well as teaching with some of her ex-students are all integral parts of the personality that we know as the lady on the "little stool."

To you, MRS. JONES

North Caddo Graduates Edweda Rougeau, Julia Nance, Clarice White, Ann Saulsbury and Linda Camp show mixed emotions as they line up to enter the auditorium to receive their diplomas and take their places in the world for which North Caddo has prepared them.

Senior choir members sing, "Let There Be Peace on Earth" at Baccalaureate services for the 1964 N. C. graduates.

The full meaning of graduation is depicted on the faces of Edweda Rougeau, Cathy Gill Williams, Julia Claire Nance, Glenda Ferguson, Faye Young Alexander, and Clarice White, 1964 North Caddo graduates.

Mary Ann Childress just finished her homework in Math.

North Caddo P.E. Classes learn the life-saving method of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. Deanna Anthony, Ann Festervand, Peggy Giddens, and Johnny Flemmons watch Brenda Sessum successfully revive "Rescue Ann."

Linda Skaggs concentrates on her lessons in English.

Beth Doyle, Charles Hollier, and Sheila Brasher are working hard to make this year's Spanish party one of the best.

Allen Cook works with a wood lathe shaping a bowl in the Industrial Arts Dept.

Gil Hartzo puts the finishing touches to his Art project.

Administration and Faculty

Mr. O. C. Sanders, North Caddo Principal, extends a friendly hand to students, faculty, and visitors. He has a B.S. degree from N.S.C. and a Master of Education from L.S.U.

OUR ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL AND COUNSELOR

In her position as Assistant Principal of North Caddo, Mrs. Norvie Burr has numerous responsibilities which she successfully carries out. Her personal interest in the students at North Caddo is magnified by her willingness to be a Student Council. sponsor.

Mr. James Allison, as school counselor, helps us as students to make decisions and better understand ourselves. He encourages each of us to engage in lifelong planning and counsels us on how to do it. All of us truly appreciate what Mr. Allison does for us.

TO YOU. MRS. ELLEN BURR, WE SAY:

Thank you for all your patience as our sponsor and for getting us "graduated." We appreciate all your efforts and time spent in seeing that our caps and gowns were ordered and we really didn't mean to "lose" our honor card and our collar. For all the other "little" things you did toward supporting us we also want to say thanks. We especially want to thank you for the time you spent with us as freshmen preparing us for all our following years in English. When we return to N.C. in the years to come, we will always remember Room 106 and you, Mrs. Ellen Burr.

In Memoriam

DAVID WILLIAMS

David had a quiet, unobtrusive way about him. Though he seemed serious, he always had a ready smile and a twinkle in his eye. A true sportsman, he found deep satisfaction in the great outdoors and contentment in the simple things of life.

David possessed the talent of making friends easily and the rare quality for keeping those friends. He will be long remembered by his many friends at North Caddo.

Pelican State

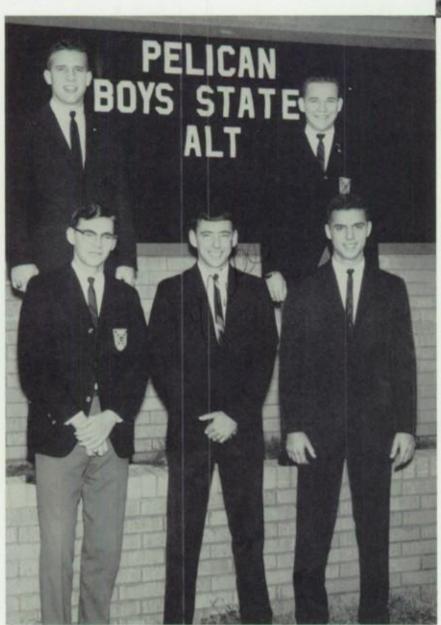

PELICAN STATERS STUDY GOVERNMENT

The main purpose of Pelican State, sponsored by the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary, is to teach Louisiana's future leaders the proper procedures of government. A week filled with intense study of city, parish and state government was scheduled for the delegates as they arrived in Baton Rouge in late August.

Youth Appreciation

Each year the Shreveport Optimist Club honors outstanding students from each high school in our area. A Senior boy and girl is selected by the faculty of the high school they attend to be the recipients of this high award. Because of their outstanding records at North Caddo and because of their many contributions to "our" school, the North Caddo Faculty chose Lance Alexander and Nora Jane Corley to be our representatives and to receive this award.

ANN HALFORD Good Citizen

Ann Halford, outstanding North Caddo Senior, was selected by the faculty as the GOOD CITIZEN of NORTH CADDO HIGH SCHOOL. This award is sponsored by the FRANCIS REBECCA HARRISON CHAPTER OF VIVIAN, DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, and based on qualities of DEPENDABILITY, SERVICE, LEADERSHIP, AND PATRIOTISM. The faculty selection is approved by the local chapter of DAR and announced at assembly.

Leadership

Each year North Caddo sends representatives to Leadership Conference for the purpose of gaining valuable information about the fields they represent. The Conference is sponsored by L.S.U. and is held on their campus. The students who attend are chosen by the sponsors of the organizations which send them. Sending delegates to this conference enables the Rebel, Southern Accent, and Library Club to be a better service to North Caddo.

Precedence was set on the night of Feb. 23, 1965, when the N.C. Rebels defeated the Jesuit Blue Flyers to win the school's first district basketball championship. Eight Rebels under the tutelage of Coach Billy Wiggins fashioned a 19-11 record to gain the coveted trophy and a berth in the regional state playoffs.

There can be no doubt that this was North Caddo's finest basketball season, and these eight Rebel basketball players have set a fine example for future Rebel basketball teams to strive to duplicate. Congratulations are in order for eight fine Rebs: MIKE DURHAM, JOHNNY RAY ALEXANDER, LANCE ALEXANDER, PETE SCHULER, JERRY CARLISLE, MIKE ARMSTRONG, JOHN HALL, AND ROBERT HORN.

Coaches Wiggins and Simmons on the day after the night before when the Rebs captured the 1-AA title.

LANCE ALEXANDER Senior

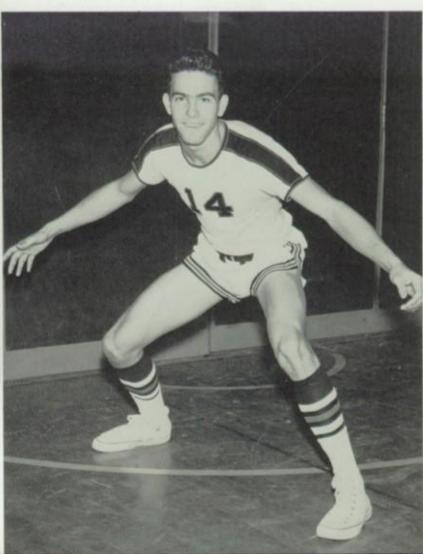

Lance Alexander, a 6ft. 1"
Senior, was the quarterback of the N.C. Rebels this year.
Lance carved a fine 10.3 point average over the full season's work and was not to be denied when it came to ball-handling and dribbling on the court. Through the season he came to be known to his teammates and fellow students as Sir Lancelot. Lance was selected by the District coaches as a member of the All-District 2nd team.

MIKE ARMSTRONG Senior

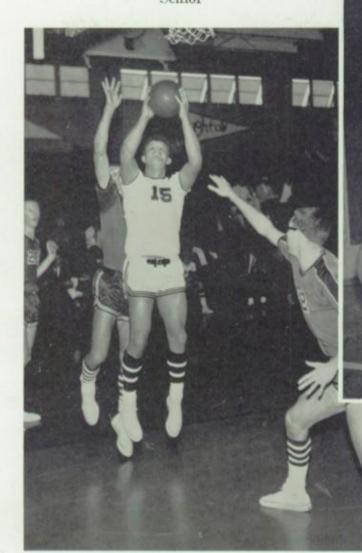

Probably the finest "#6 man" in the entire district, and on occasion a starter, was 6'1" Mike Armstrong, known to his teammates as a fine rebounder and clutch shooter. Undoubtedly his finest game of the year was the second Minden game in which he came off the bench to score 14 points and grab 10 rebounds to spark the Rebels to a hard-fought victory.

mary Babe

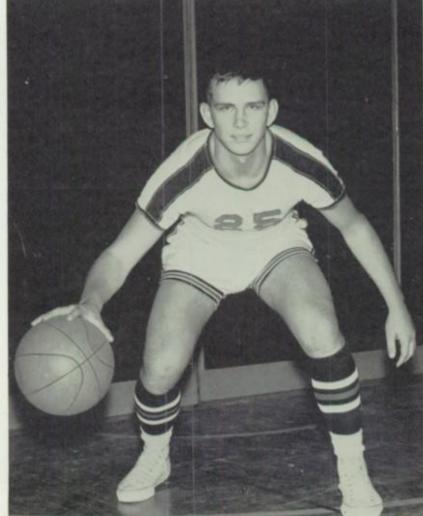

JOHNNY RAY ALEXANDER Senior

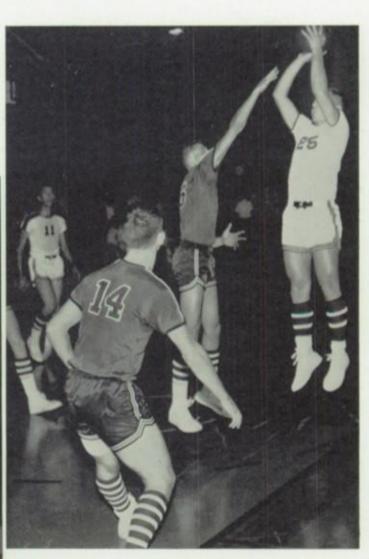

"Johnny Reb" Ray Alexander led the Rebs in the district contests with a 14.5 norm and some tremendous rebounding. This all-district Senior was the only returning starter from the previous season. Johnny Ray was again a member of the All-District 1-AA team, receiving this honor two consecutive years.

A 5'11" Senior, John Hall, was not a frequent starter for the Rebels, but he was a valuable player and sparked the Rebs with some fine clutch play. John was especially noted for his ability to drive for the basket and score the "clutch basket". It was John who pulled the game with Woodlawn out for the Rebs when he hit four free throws with less than a minute to play. He received honorable mention on the All-District team.

JOHN HALL Senior

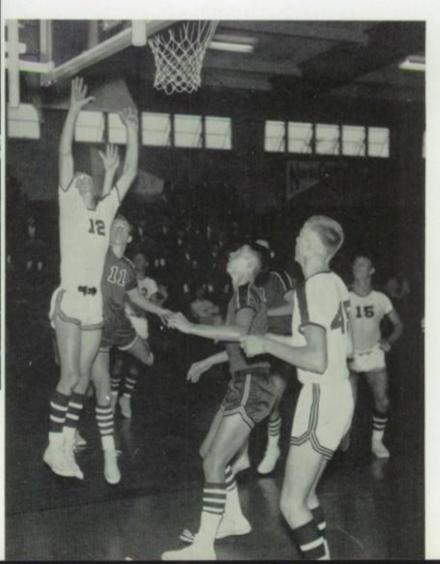

ROBERT HORN Senior

Another member of the "ELITE EIGHT" was Senior Robert Horn, 5'10", a fine marksman. Although Robert did not see full-time duty, he always came through with a fine effort whenever he was called upon. His sincere desire and attitude will be missed next year.

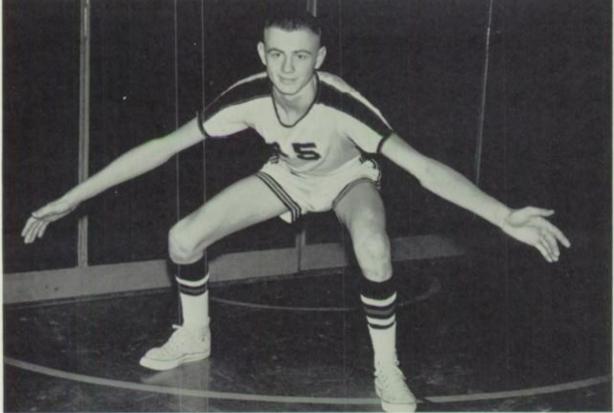

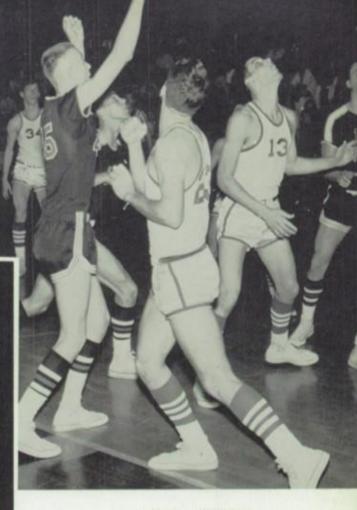

PETE SCHULER Junior

"Pistol-Pete" Schuler, a 5'11" Junior, showed marked improvement over the season and possessed a 10.0 point average through the championship contest. "Pistol-Pete" chipped in with some fine defense and clutch shooting to spark the Rebs on numerous occasions.

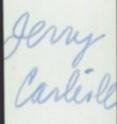

Leading scorer and rebounder over the entire season for the District 1-AA Champs was a long-armed junior, Mike Durham, who had a 12.0 points per game and 11.2 rebounds. His favorite shot was from the corner of the court and was seldom missed. Rebel fans will look forward to seeing Mike on the court again next year . . . and watching this All-District 2nd teamer exhibit some fine shooting.

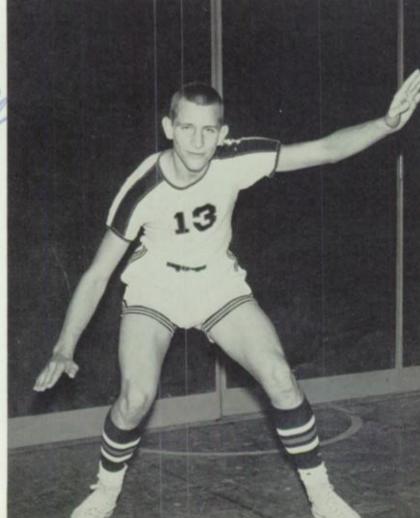

MIKE DURHAM Junior

Jerry Carlisle, 5'11", is a defensive minded junior who, on many occasions, drew the opposing team's most feared offensive player. Carlisle's finest game was the championship game against Jesuit, which saw him turn in a tremendous defensive performance against the tough Blue Flyers.

SASC CONVENTION

The Southern Association of Student Councils held their convention at Jacksonville Beach, Florida, this past year. Representing North Caddo at this convention were student council members Doug Pearson, Cynthia Simmons, and Tammy Mathews. They were accompanied by Miss Lola Peterson, North Caddo faculty member.

LASC CONVENTION

A group of North Caddo Student Council members attended the LASC Convention in Thibodeaux, La., with their sponsor, Mr. James Allison. Attending this convention was: Priscilla Selman; Linda Turnley; Nora Jane Corley; and Doug Pearson, N.C. Student Council President.

The Student Council's biggest project this year was the construction of a Plaza between B and C wing for the benefit of N.C. students. Shown here is the early stage of construction as workers pour the concrete.

STUDENT COUNCIL WORKSHOP

Three N.C. Student Council officers attended the S.C. workshop during the summer which was held on the USL campus in Lafayette, La. Attending this workshop from our school was Cynthia Simmons, Doug Pearson, and Priscilla Selman.

Mr. Bill Pendergrass is supervising the smoothing of the concrete for the Plaza. N.C. students worked hard to make this project a success.

The Devotional Group

The Devotional Group of North Caddo is a non-denominational group that conducts a morning devotion at the beginning of each school day in the school auditorium. Mrs. Hazel Barron is the faculty advisor to the devotional leaders. This group is in charge of providing a Thanksgiving assembly and a Christmas assembly each year. They contribute much to the spiritual development of those students who take advantage of this daily devotion.

Stamping and sorting pictures is one of the biggest jobs in preparation for making rough drafts of each annual page. Junior staff members Tammy Mathews, Vicki Dennison, Carol Groft, and Sharron Barlow are busy on this important phase of yearbook work.

REBEL STAFF WORKS HARD TO PREPARE BOOK

Sharron Barlow has a decision to make: Which would be the most attractive layout for these pictures?

Lance, our editor, and Tammy, our artist, are preoccupied with their respective jobs on the Rebel.

Johnny Flemmons, student photographer, makes it possible for us to record by picture many of the day-to-day activities at North Caddo.

Carol and Vicki work hard to get the copy ready for the final shipment.

Key Club

The North Caddo Key Club is a service organization to our school and our communities. Listed among some of the services to the school are: the distribution of the CANNONS, a school directory; helping to keep order in the lunch line and in the halls during OP's, and serving as ushers at all home football games. At Christmas, the Key Club renders a service to the community by sponsoring a Miss Christmas pageant and charging canned goods as the admission to prepare baskets for the needy.
